

Honolulu Memorial

The memorial was established by the American Battle Monuments Commission to honor the sacrifices and achievements of American armed forces in the Pacific during World War II and the Korean War. The memorial grew in 1980 to include the Missing of the Vietnam War. The Department of Veterans Affairs administers the cemetery.

American Battle Monuments Commission

This agency of the United States government operates and maintains 24 American cemeteries and 25 memorials, monuments and markers in 15 countries. The Commission works to fulfill the vision of its first chairman, General of the Armies John J. Pershing. Pershing, commander of the American Expeditionary Forces during World War I, promised that "time will not dim the glory of their deeds."

COURT 1

COURT A

Eight courts of the missing display names of those missing in the Central and South Pacific during WW II and those of the Korean War.

On either side of the grand stairs leading to the memorial are eight courts of the missing, showing the names of the 18,096 World War II missing from the Pacific, excluding the southwest Pacific, and 8,200 missing from the Korean War. Half courts A and B contain the names of 2,504 missing from the Vietnam War. The chapel at the top of the stairs contains galleries with mosaic maps describing achievements of the American armed forces.

U.S. flags flank the chapel altar.
